

DECISION SUPPORT SYSTEM (DSS)

A Decision Support System (DSS) is a computer-based system that helps managers and decision-makers make better decisions by analyzing data and presenting useful information.

Organizations generate large amounts of data every day. DSS helps convert this raw data into meaningful information.

Example: A bank can use DSS to analyze customer transactions and identify which customers are likely to take a loan.

NAME: SANTHOSH.A

REG NO:192525406